SEVENTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, JANUARY 24, 1898.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give away his paper for free any more than a merchant can lose over his counter the goods he sells for nothing. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisement is paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

We'll Break the Rule!

January, as a rule, is a dull month for clothing people. We believe much of the dullness is the fault of the merchants. They labor under the impression that nearly everyone has laid in their winter supplies and fear to expend money for printer's ink. We will break the rule and see what virtue there is in printer's ink and the offer of good clothing at about 50 cents on the dollar. Now, the first thing you want to do is to read this ad. carefully; the next is to come and see the goods advertised. What will follow will be a rule-breaker.

On Thursday morning, January 13th, and until the end of the month, all our fine Beaver Overcoats—garments that sold for $10, $12 and $15—will go at $6.75.

Our finest Beaver, Kersey and Cover Overcoats that sold at $18, $20 and $25 will go at $15.

Our Cheviot and Cassimere Suits that sold at $10, $12 and $15 will go at $7.50.

Our finest Cheviots, Worsted and Cassimere Suits that sold at $15, $18 and $20 will go at $12.

We need not comment on qualities. Everybody knows what class of clothing we sell.

$4 90! $4 90!

This represents the selling price of 250 all-wool Cassimere and Cheviot Suits that we recently closed out from C. Meyers & Bro., Philadelphia. Not a Suit in the lot that isn't worth $9. Grand Jury Reported to Have More Than Sufficient Evidence.

The report of the Lewis County Grand Jury, indicting Henry Halbert for the willful murder of Captain Hoober, caused a sensation at Vanceburg on account of the sensational testimony produced.

There was enough evidence produced before the Grand Jury, it is said, to hang Halbert.

The authorities say they will make every effort in their power to capture him.

His wealthy relatives were surprised at the report of the Grand Jury.

They have been claiming that it would be impossible to secure enough testimony to indict him.

Halbert's whereabouts are as yet unknown.

CONGRESSIONAL

Teller Resolution Will Be Disposed of This Week.

The Pension Appropriation Bill Will Also Be Called Up.

Not Much Attention Will Be Given to the Teller Resolution in the House Little of Interest During the Session of the District of Columbia.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The present outlook is unfavorable to the senate's giving much attention to the Hawaiian treaty during this week. The agreement to vote on Thursday upon the Teller resolution reaffirming the doctrine that United States bonds are payable in silver at the option of the government will in all probability result in the senate's giving the major portion of its time until that date to this measure with the exception of the Teller resolution for Monday and it is expected that speeches for it will be made by Senators Teller, Pittenger, White and others, and that there also will be some addresses in opposition. Senator Nelson has offered an amendment declaring for the acceptance of the party of the two metals, but the silver men, considering this proposed modification wholly out of the purpose will not accept it. They say they will insist upon a vote upon the resolution as it stands.

ADM. SICARD, And Five Hattiesburg, Off the Bar at Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 24.—A telegram from Key West says Adm. Sicard, with the battleships New York, Indiana, Massachusetts, Iowa and Texas, arrived off the bar at 10 o'clock Sunday. The Maine, Montgomery and Detroit and the torpedo boats Cushing and Dupont went out and joined the fleet. An important message was received here at 11 o'clock for Adm. Sicard, but there is no way of transportation to the fleet. The fleet will leave Saturday night state that extra guards have been placed around Lee's office for protection. The fleet is expected to leave Havana, sailing on volunteers for the protection of the American colony. There is no news of an attempt to assassinate the admiral.

FRANK G. CANNON, (United States Senator from Utah.)

The pension appropriation bill will be called up Monday, and as soon as it is disposed of the senate will be asked to take up the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. Each of these will provoke some debate, but it is not expected to be prolonged in either case.

When the treaty next comes up Senator Teller will be recognized to speak in its support, and he probably will be followed by Senator White in opposition. The vote on the treaty now appears at least three weeks distant. The house programme for this week includes little of interest beyond the limits of the district of Columbia. Almost the entire week will be devoted to the Indian appropriation bill. It is expected that the Indian appropriation bill, the consideration of which was begun Saturday, will be completed Monday. The only item in the bill which is of great importance is a contest is that providing for the leasing of the Gilaite beds of the Uncompahgre reservation in Utah. This provision was inserted in the Indian bill and will be stubbornly contested now. The district bill will probably conclude the remainder for this week.

So far as could be learned the administration had no advice from Havana Sunday. Both the department and the parliament affirmed that nothing had been heard from Gen. Lee and professed to look upon the lack of news as a good sign. On the other hand, the state was full of rumors ranging in importance from the statement that the white squadron had sailed for Havana, to the report that Lee's being assassinated at Havana. Inquiry however failed to reveal any basis for sensational reports. WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The reason given for the delay in the orders were received from the president that he feared a crisis in Cuban matters and wanted the body to be ready to act at a moment's notice.

The state department is silent, but it is evident that private information of a startling nature has been received. It is understood that the president is setting under secret advice from Consul General Lee. Senators have been instructed not to leave the city under any circumstances, and Senator Lodge was compelled to decline an invitation to go to Boston. It is also known that arrangements have been made to speedily convene the senate on Sunday next.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—On the desk of Mr. Allen (Neb.) at the opening of Saturday's session of the senate, was a statement of the pensioners for your noble and brave defense of a woman's honor." Mr. Allen championed the cause of Mrs. M. E. Roberts, who was summarily dismissed from the pension office.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The president sent to the senate Saturday the nomination of Gov. Griggs, of New Jersey, to be attorney general, to succeed Judge McKenna, who was confirmed Friday as associate justice of the supreme court.

VISIT EXPLAINED

President Dole Appreciates McKinley's Favorite Policy.

Misunderstandings Have Arisen in Regard to Annexation.

People of Hawaii Would Be Disappointed Should Treaty Be Signed. President Dole Will Not Lobby for It, But Will Assist Annexation Commissioners.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Jan. 24.—President Sanford B. Dole's progress is being watched at every station by a crowd of people anxious to see the Hawaiian president. President Dole was not visible to the public at Lehi, but at nearly every station between here and San Francisco, where the train stopped long enough, he has been upon the depot platform, carefully guarded and accompanied by his wife and physician. The president is in precarious health, but the long journey and the change from his official duties are having a good effect. The president is not disposed to lobby for the treaty. He said: "During the last day and a half of our stay in San Francisco the people of that city were very kind to us, indeed, and they were anxious to see the charge of neglect which the newspapers of that city made. We have made arrangements regarding our stay in Chicago or our journey on from there, having been notified by Mr. Hatch that he would be attending to for us. We are enjoying our journey immensely. Mr. Hatch writes me that I probably will go to Washington by way of New York."

"I am going to Washington with the view of explaining away, if possible, some misunderstandings which have arisen in regard to annexation. I shall not lobby for the treaty, but shall assist the annexation commissioners and probably meet the senate committee on foreign relations. If the present treaty falls the people of the United States will be disappointed, but they will not be discouraged. What opposition there is to annexation in Hawaii is mostly through misunderstanding of what it will do for us. As far as I am able to learn sentiment in the United States is almost unanimously in favor of it. I fully appreciate President McKinley's conservative policy and believe that things take their time. If the present treaty falls we shall attribute it largely to the more pressing Cuban situation and the fact that the United States senate does not want to do two things at once."

One object of my visit is to find out just how sentiment lies, and the Hawaiian legislation at home will be determined very largely by that. If I am not, as has been said, going to New York to see about refunding the Hawaiian debt, because that is held against the United States, I will be in the United States for some time. President Dole was reticent on the subject of his plans for a provisional government, but the result of the visit being ratified by the United States senate.

"Has the Japanese government any intention to secure control of the islands in case they should not be annexed?" "That I do not know. There is a difference of opinion among our people on this question, many believing that no serious danger of Japanese interference will exist, and others that the danger will be great." Asked if he believed annexation would involve the United States in the war with Japan, he said: "I have thought of this phase of the question I have not looked into any trouble, and I do not think there would be any. This, too, is the general opinion of our people on the subject."

"The reports of leprosy on our island are certainly created. It is true that we have 4,000 lepers, when, in fact, there are fewer than 1,600."

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—President and Mrs. McKinley left for Hawaii, arriving at Honolulu at 8 o'clock Sunday morning. Withdrawing the heavy storm, which delayed suburban trains in the vicinity of Chicago half an hour, the first section of the Chicago and North-western railroad train No. 1, known as the Overland Limited, from San Francisco, pulled into the depot at Chicago, within 20 minutes of the schedule time.

A distinguished party greeted the president of the little island republic on his arrival. The federal government was represented by Judge Grosscup, Gen. John C. Black, United States district attorney; Mr. Thos. E. MacMillan, clerk of the United States district court, and Hon. Thos. W. Cridler, of the state department at Washington. Chicago was represented by Mayor Harrison and the army and navy departments. Hon. E. A. Tamm, United States senator from Illinois, and the president was welcomed by Gen. Brooke and his staff, consisting of Gen. Brooke and Lieut. Dean and McKenna; Hon. F. M. Hatch, minister to the United States from Hawaii; Wm. Penn Nixon, Dr. Henry O. Leman, and Fred Dole's party consisted of himself, Mr. Dole, Secretary Lusk and Dr. Day, his physician.

Bank Closed Its Doors. MARQUETTE, Mich., Jan. 24.—Wilkinson bank closed its doors Saturday. J. M. Wilkinson was assigned receiver to his bank by the state of Michigan. The assignment was made to protect the interests of the estate of J. M. Wilkinson, who is now lying at the point of death. All creditors are expected to be paid in full.

Whisky Warehouse Burned. NARVILL, Tenn., Jan. 24.—Shortly after midnight one of the largest warehouses of the Old Hurricane Springs distillery, near Tallahassee, was destroyed by fire. Nearly one thousand barrels of whisky were also burned. Loss is about $75,000; insurance not ascertainable.

Mr. Gladstone Very Weak. CANNON, Jan. 9.—The alarming rumors of Friday regarding the illness of Mr. Gladstone were further confirmed Saturday. He is extremely weak and so debilitated as to expect of neurasthenia, but he expressed a desire that all were over.
